ORDER FORM

Building Career Ladders:

A "How-to" Manual for Practitioners

By Claudia Green, Consultant,
and Sarah Griffen, Director of Special Initiatives,
Jamaica Plain Neighborhood Development Corporation;
Co-chairs, Career Ladders Committee,
Boston Workforce Development Coalition

Please send me: _____ # of copies X $35 per copy: $ _____

($20/copy for Coalition members)

Plus shipping and handling ($5/copy) $ _____

TOTAL AMOUNT DUE: $ _____

Name: _____

Title: _____

Organization: _____

Address: _____

Phone: _____ Fax: _____

e-mail: _____

Please make check payable to:

Boston Workforce Development Coalition
165 Brookside Ave. Ext.
Jamaica Plain, MA 02130

The Boston Workforce Development Coalition is an independent non-profit membership organization whose mission is to address the growing needs of low-income and disenfranchised workers for increased skills, earnings, and career advancement.

Membership includes over 85 local community-based education and training providers, community colleges, policy institutes, unions, and employers.

The Coalition advocates at the local and state levels for policies and legislation that impact the workforce and workforce development; and, through its Career Ladders Initiative, helps broker partnerships between training providers and employers; provides technical assistance to employers, community organizations, and others; and initiates and initiates and assists projects that promote worker opportunities and advancement.